Christiana Care Health System President and CEO Dr. Janice Nevin Receives National Recognition as Physician Leader

Wilmington, Del., Dec. 15, 2016 – Christiana Care Health System President and CEO Janice E. Nevin, M.D., MPH, has received several national recognitions as a health system leader from Becker’s Hospital Review, a leading source of information for health care industry leaders.

On Nov. 23, the publication named Dr. Nevin to its list of 130 Women Hospital and Health System Leaders to Know. She also was recently named among Becker’s 135 Nonprofit Hospital and Health System CEOs to Know and 110 Physician Leaders to Know.

“This national recognition for the quality of our leadership is testimony to the exceptional value Christiana Care brings to our community,” said Doneene Damon, chair of the Christiana Care Board of Directors. “The extraordinary people at Christiana Care are focused on providing optimal health and an exceptional experience to all those we are privileged to serve.”

According to Becker’s, under Dr. Nevin’s leadership “the health system achieved Magnet re-accreditation and is one of only 15 major teaching hospitals in the United States to be named to Truven Health Analytics’ list of Top 100 Hospitals in both 2015 and 2016.”

The Becker’s listings highlight many of Dr. Nevin’s professional accomplishments. Before being named president and CEO in 2014, she held several leadership roles at Christiana Care, including Chief Medical Officer, Chief Patient Safety Officer and Chair of the Department of Family & Community Medicine. The publication notes that Dr. Nevin is the former president of the Association of Family Medicine Residency Directors, was a member of the Project Leadership Committee for the Future of Family Medicine Project and currently serves on the boards of the Delaware Community Foundation and the United Way of Delaware and is a founding member of the Wilmington Leaders Alliance.

About Christiana Care Health System

Christiana Care Health System is one of the country’s largest health care systems, ranking as the 22nd leading hospital in the nation and 11th on the East Coast in terms of admissions. The health system includes The Medical Group of Christiana Care, a network of primary care physicians, medical and surgical specialists as well as home health care, preventive medicine, rehabilitation services and patient/family advisors for core health care services. A not-for-profit teaching hospital affiliated with Sidney Kimmel Medical College at Thomas Jefferson University, Christiana Care is recognized as a regional center for excellence in cardiology, cancer and women's health services. Christiana Care has an extensive range of outpatient services, and through Christiana Care Quality Partners, Christiana Care works closely with its medical staff to achieve better health, better access to care and lower cost. Christiana Care is home to Delaware's only Level I trauma center, the highest capability center and the only one of its kind between Philadelphia and Baltimore. Christiana Care features a Level III neonatal intensive care unit, the only delivering hospital in Delaware that offers this highest level of care to the most critically ill newborns. Christiana Care includes two hospitals with 1,100 patient beds. For more information about Christiana Care, visit www.christianacare.org/whoweare.
